

I do not think that New Jersey's telephone consumer protection act is too stringent. Before the act too effect I was constantly bombarded by unsolicited telemarketers. Now I am able to eat my dinner in peace. So do not weaken the act.

Thanks
Robert Baigas